OF DIFFERENT COINS

The Germans because of their Easterly Dwelling from the English were called Easterlings, some of whom dwelling in England, first of all stamped a pure coin, which from them was called Esterling Money; and now leaving out the initial Letter E it is called Sterling Money at this day — Queen Elizabeth called in all the base coin of her predecessors; since which time nothing but sterling money passes; except for necessity of the poor; permission is given for coining copper into English Farthings and Half Pence, which is not a Tender for Rent and Debt. The Pound, Shilling and Pence of different nations differ in value; thus an English Penny is a Scottish Shilling. The Hebrew Talent in Silver is L. 375, in Gold L. 4500.

Artiabalipa, King of Peru (being taken by the Spaniards who conquered his Country), paid for his Ransom Ten Million Three Hundred and Twenty Six Thousand Ducats in Gold; nevertheless after they got his money; put him to death. The Priest, after having described Heaven and Hell to him, told him they would pardon his Sins, and he should go to Heaven: He asked if the Spaniards went there. The Priest answered, yes. Then, says the poor Peruvian, I will go to the other place.

(This Article is taken from "Almanack" of 1761 which is for sale in the Auction this month.)

SHIP TOKENS OF CANADA

In the last century in Canada the ship tokens, bearing the "Ships, Colonies and Commerce" and on the reverse a fullrigged ship under sail, circulated as money. There are known to be some twenty-five varieties of the coins. It was due to small change becoming scarce, as was during the Civil War, that the merchants of Canada had these coins struck to take their place.

Many of the coins show the British flag flying from the mast-head of the ship, and there are some varieties which have the American flag. The dies for the latter pieces were made by a firm of New York engravers. None of these are of exceptional rarity, although the ones bearing the United States Flag are held at a premium.

Precancel Gems

Wilfried Myers, Editor

276 Poland Ave. Struthers, Ohio

Recently I saw one of the 2c Nebraska overprint stamps which had been precanceled Hastings, Nebr. This was evidently on a first class letter and was a stamp which was not intended to be precanceled. That was the first crime committed by the stamp and then — — 2nd — — it was used for first class letter postage which is also against the U. S. Postal rules. Some more prohibition stuff!

Looking Backward: Back in 1922 there was a precancel society known as the Precancel Club of America. This latter became the Precancel Stamp Society. In 1922 the club boasted of 123 members.

A value of about $3,000.00 worth of precancels are exchanged each month. There are about 5,000 precancel collectors in round numbers.

The precancel hobby boasts of two catalogues. One, a two volume book, which is issued annually and which lists, describes, illustrates and prices every known precancel. The other catalogue is a specialized one that lists only bureau prints and is published twice a year.

There are three precancel house organs, that I know of, and two precancel magazines issued in addition to regular columns in nearly every philatelic and allied paper.

The precancel hobby is big enough to absorb all the really fine precancels at good prices. The hobby is growing and the collectors are growing with it.

50th anniversary of San Diego, Cal., high school celebrating early in November with cachet and special post-office cancellation. 3c and 8c covers to Mr. P. H. Heron, San Diego High School, San Diego, California.

The following cities are reported to being ready to dedicate their airports. Des Moines, Iowa; Palestine, Texas; West Palm Beach, Fla.; Reeds, North Carolina; Athens, Ohio; Colcord, Okla.; Crivits, Wis.; Danville, Virginia; Ellsworth, Maine; Fairbault, Minn.; Price, Utah; Van Horn, Tex.; and Fitzgerald, Georgia. Try the Chamber of Commerce and request them to hold your covers for such dedication. No dates, so its up to you to take a chance. If any of you collectors live near or in any of these cities, please get C. of C. to send in correct dates and last but not least get them to sponsor a cachet. Thanks to Geo. Richter for this news.

The new green airmail stamp (8c value) was issued on September 26th. Not many collectors received 1st day covers of this stamp as the Postal Dept. did not handle covers as in the case of 3c commemoratives. Issued 1st day at Washington, D. C., and on September 27th the stamps were placed on sale in various central cities throughout the country. Nice looking stamps.

The Archbold, Ohio, dedication by the Exchange Club there is postponed and collectors are asked to send in stamped-self addressed envelopes for return of covers.
